VANCO INTERNATIONAL INTRODUCES NEW HINGED WALL PLATE

Batavia, IL. October 17, 2008 – Vanco International, an innovative supplier of home theater electronic accessories, will be introducing their new Patent Pending Hinged Bulk Wire Wall Plate at EHX Fall 2008.

This inventive new wall plate allows the user to install the plate after all cables and electronic hardware is terminated. Simply install the top half of the plate to your low voltage mounting bracket with the lower hinge open. Then rotate it into place and install the screw to finish off the job.

Vanco's Hinged Bulk Wire Wall Plate and numerous other innovative products will be on display at EXH Fall 2008 (booth # 525) in Long Beach, CA, November 5-7, 2008.
