Vanco International, LLC UNVEILS AN EXPANDED WEBSITE

Batavia, IL, February 14, 2005 - Vanco International, LLC, an innovative supplier of electronic accessories to the home theater, low voltage and electronic distributor market for over 46 years, announces their expanded web site is now on-line.

With the expanded web site, Vanco is providing leading edge technology products and information that support the ever changing demands of the digital consumer electronic accessory market.

The web site has been constructed to be user-friendly and to provide detailed product and technical information.

Vanco's full-line catalog, supplemental catalog and product literature are easily accessible on the web site for downloading and printing.

The technical area provides a comprehensive listing of electronic accessory terminology with simple explanations. Also, included in the technical area are "How-To Hook-up" project listings on connecting various audio and video components.

Vanco is confident that this new web site format will make it easier for distributors to locate any type of electronic accessory.

The web site can be reached at <http://www.Vanco1.com>.
